

Psychology: Island Project

Name _____

* To receive the maximum points awarded for this project, you must follow the directions which appear below. (In other words, to get a "25" do the following.)

 You have been left alone on a deserted island to start a new civilization. Technology, environment, etc. is the same as it is today, but there are no other people, except you and 5 others. Your assignment is to pick the other 5 people you would like to start a new civilization with. Here are the guidelines:

* You cannot pick a member of your immediate family!

* Remember you are starting a new population!

 Write a good-sized paragraph explaining why you would pick this individual - They must be living and someone you know!

* You must inform this individual of their selection. To confirm that you told them, they must sign their name and write out briefly their feelings on being selected! Please be honest!!
