

Psychology

Teacher Course: Psychology	Grade: 11-12	Subject(s): Social Sciences	Unit: Personality and Testing	Month(s): October	Unit Time Duration: 3 weeks
Vocabulary: Personality, defense mechanisms, ego, superego, id, extravert, organism, projection, regression, repression, inferiority complex, self-actualization, trait, achievement test, aptitude test, IQ, norms, reliability, validity, personality tests, pragmatic, unconscious, freudian slip
Targets
Knowledge Targets: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Explain and understand concepts of the four major personality theories discussed in class<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Understand terminology used in personality theories and testing● Define defense mechanisms and know how the unconscious uses them
Skills Targets: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Measure effect of Freud's 'unconscious mind' principles on one's personality● Differentiate between various types of tests used in psychology and other areas● Collect signatures/comments for 'Island Project' and share with class
Reasoning Targets: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· Categorize various personality traits with different age groups in society Evaluate a personality theory and apply it to your life
Product Targets: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· create personality collage and share with class during discussion/evaluation
Activities
Activities - All Learners: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· take sample IQ test evaluate personality survey taken in class					